The Architectural History of the University of Arizona Campus

This Arizona Humanities Council sponsored program features Dr. Albrecht Classen, Distinguished Professor of German Studies and Medieval scholar at the University of Arizona. The University of Arizona was founded in 1895. Today, the U of A Campus encompasses nearly 400 acres. Dr. Classen will bring history to life with a fascinating and striking introduction into the architecture of some of the most important buildings constructed during the last 130 years.
