

FRIDAY

April 26, 2013

Scented Leaf Tea House 5:00pm

PRESENTER: YOU & FRIENDS
Department of German Studies
University of Arizona

Our last Fisch out of Water of the academic year 2012/13 will invite the non-native voice of the translator.

This will be an opportunity to share translations from a native into a foreign language or the other way around, and to celebrate the art of translation.

We invite speakers of various foreign languages to share their translation projects or parts of them, and to discuss the troubles and joys of translating. You are also welcome to share your favorite translation of a poem or text that someone else has composed.

(And also, there will be apple pie.)

Brought to you by the DEUTSCHER STUDENTEN-CLUB
(Re-)introducing: Fisch out of Water: An Evening of Accented Languages

The Deutscher Studenten Club (German Students' Club) would like to invite you to a special translation-focused Fisch out of Water! This event will take place at the Scented Leaf Tea House on University Avenue (right near campus). Delicious cheesecake and tea will be provided. Bring your friends!

Please contact Carolin with questions or interest.
Email: Carolin Radtke <carrad@email.arizona.edu>

FISCH out of WATER!

